The Fashion Archives & Museum of Shippensburg University and
Judy Larkin, the “Tea Lady” will present

“The Fine Art of Tea”

A program on the history and the art of taking tea.

Thursday, November 9, 2017

Attendees will have the opportunity to visit FA&M’s current exhibit:

"Through the Lens of the Beholder: The Fine Art of Dress" which features clothing and accessories for men, women and children from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. The exhibit includes clothing of twentieth-century designers Coco Chanel, Arnold Scaasi, and Jacques Fath.

“The pieces for this exhibit were selected for their artistic merit in terms of construction, embellishments or fine fabrics,” said Dr. Karin J. Bohleke, FA&M director.

For additional information, contact the FA&M at fasharch@ship.edu, or call (717) 477-1239

Program begins at 2 p.m. and includes a full afternoon tea and the exhibit.

Registration Form:
Name: ________________________________ E-mail: ________________________________
Telephone: ___________________________ E-mail: ________________________________
 Fee: $32.50. Number attending: ____________
Amount enclosed: ____________ Make checks payable to SU Foundation/Fashion Archives
Deadline: Registration must be received by October 31, 2017.

Mail registration form to: Fashion Archives & Museum, Shippensburg University, 1871 Old Main Dr., Shippensburg, PA 17257

Registration is limited to 30 participants and will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis. Pre-paid registrations only will be accepted. No refunds for cancellations or no-shows.

For road directions with photos, see http://fashionarchives.org/directions.html.