

GET A CLUE: FASHION SCAVENGER HUNT

"Welcome to the Fashion Archives, Detective. We need your help with a very important mission. Five of our prized pieces have been stolen and they were going to be included in our new program opening tomorrow! We need to find them before the culprit leaves town and they are lost forever.

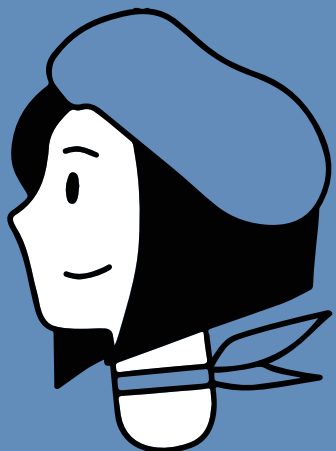

I wish I could help more but all I know is:

- The crime occurred between 8 PM on October 29 & 8 AM on October 30.
- We are missing an ostrich feather hat, a leopard coat, an alligator satchel, snake skin shoes, and a fox scarf.
- We have six suspects whom I have included for you.

In terms of leads, I recommend you check the doors as there is only one way the culprit could have entered the building without setting off any alarms.

I wanted to return this book I borrowed before I left on vacation. I was incredibly excited to see the new exhibition once it opened. I hate that I booked my trip four days before it opened. I will have to get the highlights when I get back. Please return this book on ostrich feathers for me!

-Michael

Could Michael still be a suspect? Circle your answer and explain. Yes or No.

Notes from book:

1. Women working in factories with ostrich feathers faced unsafe working conditions.

To Do:

1. Pack suitcase for trip to Boston.
2. Call Daniel Crane to confirm that he can pick me up from airport to attend his opening.

Thanks! - Charlie
