The Revolution of Fashion: Design Your own Fashion Plate

Pick one of the scenarios below and design a fashion plate that you would most likely create based on the scenario you have chosen. Then provide a justification for your design based on your scenario. Then answer the questions on the back of this worksheet:

Scenario

- a) A French Noble living in France before the French Revolution
- b) An American living in Pennsylvania during the late 1770's
- c) An American living in Philadelphia in the late 1780's
- d) A member of the French Middle Class in France in the 1790's during the French revolution
- e) A member of the French nobility in Philadelphia in the 1780's

Your own fashion plate: Use the space provided or use separate paper to create your own fashion plate

Name: _____ Date: _____ Class: _____

Your justification:

1. What about your design fits your scenario?

2. How would you most likely go about getting this outfit based on your scenario?

3. What scenario would your outfit not fit and why?

Reflection: Evaluate and explain how political and social economic differences as well as events impact what people wear today. Is there a difference in fashion between rich and poor? Political ideology? Or where someone lives? How might modern day politics influence fashion?
